BL51	London, British Library, Add. MS	Psalter, canticles, hymns; liber horarum (five canonical	11 th century	Uncertain

¹ Sigla are derived from Don Randel, An Index to the Chant of the Mozarabic Rite (Princeton, 1973), except that I use L8 not “AL” (L8 incorporates the shelfmark); S3, S4 etc rather than Silos 3, Silos 4 etc; and all London manuscripts are labelled BL rather than BM, reflecting their move to the British Library. An Appendix with full bibliographic apparatus on each manuscript is included in Emma Hornby and Rebecca Maloy, “Melodic Dialects in Old Hispanic Chant”, Plain-song and Medieval Music 25 (2016), at http://research-information.bristol.ac.uk/en/publications/melodic-dialects-in-old-hispanic-chant\(856fa8c5-7cb8-47d4-810f-e5dfdd116609\).html.html)

BL52	London, British Library, Add. MS 30852	Orational (temporale and sanctorale, whole year)	Late-9 th century or first half of 10 th ; notation may be late-10 th century	Uncertain
BN01	Madrid, Biblioteca Nacional de España, MS 10001	Psalter, canticles, hymns; fragmentary notated liber mysticus (flyleaves; two folios); palimpsest antiphoner fragment	ca. 1100 or somewhat later (main part). 11 th century (liber mysticus)	Palaeographic and musical connections to Toledo; annotations link it to parish of S. Eulalia; origin uncertain. Part copied by presbyter Mauro for presbyter Abundancio, and part copied by Mauricio for Veraniano.
BN10	Madrid, Biblioteca Nacional de España, MS 10110	Liber mysticus (Lenten weekday offices)	Second half of 13 th century	copied by Ferdinandum Iohannes, parish priest of Santas Justa y Rufina, Toledo; liturgical tradition B
L8	León Cathedral Archive, MS 8	Antiphonary (whole year)	900-905	Near León, likely the monastery of Abeliar
OV	Biblioteca capitolare, Verona, MS	Orational	Before 732	Unknown (previously thought to be Tarragona)

	LXXXIX
PB99	Paris, Bibliothèque Nationale de France, MS nouv. acq. lat. 2199	Antiphonary fragment (dedication of a church (incomplete); vespers for bishop's ordination; common of saints (incomplete); lists of quotidian vespertini and soni)	Late-9 th or early- 10 th century	Unknown
S3	Santo Domingo de Silos, Biblioteca del Monasterio MS 3	calendar (1r-6v); 'sacerdotal' liber ordinum (7r-106v); liber misticus (common of saints, quotidian ferias, 107r-179v); Assumption and accompanying relatio (180r- 205v)	Calendar predates 1064; liber ordinum dated 1039 (colophon); liber misticus = late-11 th century	Unknown; for parish use. Liber ordinum copied by Iohanne presbitero (177r)
S4	Santo Domingo de Silos, Biblioteca del Monasterio MS 4	'episcopal' Liber ordinum	1052 (some have read this as 1022)	Copied by priest Bartholomew on orders of Abbot Domingo of the monastery of San Prudencio de Laturce; sponsored by Sancho Garceiz and his wife Bizinnina. Place of copying uncertain: it tends to be associated with the wealthy Abelda rather than with San Prudencio; Collins suggests San Millán de la Cogolla.
S6	Santo Domingo de Silos,	(paper Liber misticus (common of saints, 1r-37v);	Late-10 th or 11 th	Uncertain.

	Biblioteca del Monasterio MS 6	parchment liber mysticus (ten quotidian Sundays; 38r-154v).	century
S7	Santo Domingo de Silos, Biblioteca del Monasterio MS 7	Liber mysticus (votive offices); liber horarum	11 th century	Uncertain; monastic.
T3	Toledo, Biblioteca Capitolare MS 33-3	Liber horarum	Late-12 th century	Probably Toledo; monastic. One scribe is Elenus abba (67v).
T4	Toledo, Biblioteca Capitolare MS 35-4	Liber mysticus (Eastertide, quotidian Sundays)	Mid-13 th century or later	Probably Toledo. Owned by parish of S. Eulalia, Toledo until at least 1398 (172v)
T5	Toledo, Biblioteca Capitolare MS 35-5	Liber mysticus (Lent, Easter week)	13 th century	Probably Toledo. Liturgical tradition B
T6	Toledo, Biblioteca Capitolare MS 35-6	Liber mysticus (Easter week to Saints Justus y Pastor)	Late-10 th or- early-11 th century	Unknown; text hand with central peninsular characteristics, maybe Toledan. Musical notation and contents suggest a complex interaction of influences from further north and the Toledo region.

34	Conpleturia: Ineffabile satis est, Domine, misterium Crucis tuae, quo et mortis potestatem evacuas, et resurrectionis luce coruscas: da ergo in nobis et initia et perfectionem sanctae virtutis; ut, dum predicamus gloriam crucis, ad premium mereamur pertingere immortalitatis.		It is inexpressible enough, Lord, the mystery of your cross, by which you purge the power of death, and you are radiant in the light of resurrection, give therefore the beginnings and perfection of saintly virtue in us; that, while we preach the glory of the Cross, we may deserve to attain the prize of immortality.
