

USING SECONDARY DATA IN RESEARCH

February 7, 2018 9.45am to 4.00pm

Engineers House

The Promenade, Clifton Down Bristol,
BS8 3NB

Programme

09:45-10:00	Coffee/Tea
10:00-10:10	Introduction: Dinithi Wijedasa, School for Policy Studies, University of Bristol
	Welcome address: Patricia Holley, Manager, Jean Golding Institute, University of Bristol and Prof. Esther Dermott, Head of School, School for Policy Studies, University of Bristol
	SESSION 1 (Chair: Prof. Angie Page, University of Bristol)
10:10-10:30	Use of business data in research: Prof. Helen Simpson, University of Bristol
10:30-10:50	The use of a statistical analysis assistant for secondary data analysis: Prof. Bill Browne, Centre for Multilevel Modelling, University of Bristol
10:50-11:10	Children growing up in the care of relatives in the UK: Establishing the prevalence and characteristics through analyses of Census microdata: Dinithi Wijedasa, University of Bristol
11:10-11:25	Coffee/Tea
11:25-11:55	Introduction to the UK Data Service: Dr. Sarah King-Hele, UK Data Service
11:55-12:15	One in a Million: A primary care consultations archive: Dr Rebecca Barnes, University of Bristol
12:15-12:35	Qualitative secondary data: Spotlight on data from the secret lives of 4-year olds: Dr Debbie Watson and Hannah Brana-Martin, University of Bristol
12:35-13:25	Lunch
	SESSION 2 (Chair: Prof. William Browne, University of Bristol)
13:25-13:45	An introduction to the ALSPAC resource: a multi-generation study spanning a quarter of a century: Dr Alison Teyhan, University of Bristol
13:45-14:15	Trajectories of depressive symptoms from childhood to young adulthood in ALSPAC: Dr. José López-López and Alex Kwong, University of Bristol
14:15-14:35	Introduction to CLOSER (Cohort & Longitudinal Studies Enhancement Resources): Prof. Alison Park, Director, CLOSER, UCL Institute of Education
14:35-14:55	There and Back Again: Using national insurance data to estimate commuting costs: Isabel Stockton, University of Bristol
14:55-15:10	Coffee/ Tea
15:10-15:30	How ONS supports statistical research using unpublished data: Nick O'Donnell, Head of Research Data Access, Office of National Statistics
15:30-15:50	Wage inequality and returns to workplace training for male and female employees. A comparison between Germany and England: Rossella Icardi and Anna Hagglund, University of Bath
15:50-16:00	Closing remarks