

Law and Literature • New Perspectives and Methodologies

Friday 14 – Saturday 15 September 2018 K2.40, King’s Building, King’s College London WC2R 2LS

PROGRAMME

Session 1: Theoretical and comparative perspectives 14.00–18.30 Friday 14 September 2018

- 14.00–14.30 Arrival and registration
- 14.30–14.45 Introductory remarks: Dr Daniele Vecchiato (King’s College London)
- Chair: Professor Matthew Bell (King’s College London)
- 14.45–15.45 Keynote Lecture:
Professor Marco Wan (University of Hong Kong):
Law, Literature, and the Question of Reading
- 15.45–16.00 Discussion
- 16.00–16.20 Tea and Coffee Break
- 16.20–16.50 Professor Lorenzo Zucca (King’s College London)
Law, Poetry and Philosophy in an Age of Uncertainty
- 16.50–17.20 Professor Lyndsey Stonebridge (University of Birmingham):
Writing and Righting: Literature in the Age of Human Rights
- 17.20–17.40 Discussion
- 17.40–18.10 Dr Anna Bernard (King’s College London):
The Voyeur in the Archive: Solidarity and Spectatorship in Godard and Meiselas
- 18.10–18.30 Discussion and Conclusion
- 19.30 Dinner

Session 2: German perspectives (18th and 19th centuries) 10.00–14.30 Saturday 15 September 2018

- Chair: Dr Daniele Vecchiato (King’s College London)
- 10.00–10.30 Professor Claudia Nitschke (University of Durham):
“What do we owe each other”: Contracts and the Law in Goethe’s Götz
- 10.30–11.00 Professor Maria Carolina Foi (Università degli Studi di Trieste):
Schiller’s Demetrius Project: Questions of Legitimacy for the 20th Century?
- 11.00–11.20 Discussion
- 11.20–11.40 Tea and Coffee Break
- 11.40–12.10 Dr Hans Jochen Lind (Yale University):
Bridging the Gap: Foreign Language Approaches in Legal Hermeneutics
- 12.10–12.40 Dr Steffan Davies (University of Bristol):
Writing for Relevance and Writing for the Nation in German Exile Literature
- 12.40–13.00 Discussion
- 13.00–13.30 Closing remarks
- 13.30 Buffet lunch, refreshments, and networking